Statement on the 104th Session of the Wisconsin State Senate

Madison – State Senator Dan Feyen (R-Fond du Lac) released the following statement regarding the 104th Legislative Session.

“As the new legislative session begins, I would like to offer a warm welcome and congratulations to the 17 Senators who were sworn in to office today. I look forward to working with my colleagues on both sides of the aisle to build on the reforms of the past eight years and keep moving Wisconsin forward.”

Senator Feyen is beginning the second half of his four-year term which began in January 2017.

Senator Feyen will chair of the Senate Committee on Economic Development, Commerce and Trade. He has also been appointed to serve as the Vice Chair of the Senate Committee on Utilities & Housing and as a member of several other senate committees. Feyen is also a member of the Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation Board of Directors.
